

HUMBOLDT CRUISE TO ALASKA 2019

SEATTLE > JUNEAU > GLACIER BAY > SITKA > KETCHIKAN > SEATTLE
SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 7, 2019 - SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 14, 2019

Did you know that Humboldt Bay was first known as Rezanov Bay, discovered in 1804 by the Russian American company based in what was known as Russian America (Alaska), with its capital in Sitka?

Explore the mysterious origins of our coastline, from Fort Ross up to Alaska, by joining the Rev. Laurent Cleenewerck, rector of the historic St Innocent Orthodox of Alaska (939 F Street in Eureka), on an exceptional Conference & Discovery Cruise in 2019.

Thanks to the support of the Bishop of Alaska, you will have VIP access to unique sites and events in both Juneau and Sitka. You will discover the beauties of creation at Glacier Bay, and explore Juneau and Sitka, as well as Ketchikan and beautiful Victoria, B.C.

Two engaging speakers will offer daily lectures and workshops dealing with history and spirituality. The lead speaker will be the Rev. Dr. Michael Oleksa, one of the world's foremost authorities on the native cultures and peoples of Alaska.

The ship will be the spectacular Holland America Eurodam and rates start at $1,390 per person which includes all taxes and conference fees. Participation is limited to 55 due to seating restrictions on-board. Reservation is offered on a first-come / first-serve basis, (previous editions of this popular cruise were sold out). Please reserve your cabin as soon as possible.

Call Fr Laurent Cleenewerck at 707 682 6263 if you have any questions.
